RG104 E-1 Box 121

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., May 15, 1875.

Sir:

I am advised by Messrs Handy & Cromise that owing to the fact that the Express Company will not receive silver for shipment to the Mint on Saturday for the reason that they would have to hold it over Sunday and requesting permission to forward the balance due on their sale on 6th inst. on Monday, the 17th inst. I have granted their request. You will therefore please receive the same.

Very respectfully,

Horatio C Burchard

Director.

A Loudon Snowden, Esq.
Supt. U. S. Mint.
Philadelphia.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 121

Treasury Department,
Office of the Director of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
May 15, 1880

Sir:

I am advised by Messrs. Handy & Cronise that owing to the fact that the Express Company will not receive silver for shipment to the Mint on Saturday for the reason that they would have to hold it over Sunday and requesting permission to forward the balance due on their sale on 6th inst. on Monday, the 17th inst. I have granted their request. You will therefore please receive the same.

Very respectfully,
Horatio C. Burchard
Director.

A. Loudon Snowden, Esq.
Supt. U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia.